Press Release Summary: Joppa, MD August 11, 2008—Check Gallery expands its nature friendly collection with the introduction of the “Mod Garden” product suite. The new design includes personal checks, self-adhesive address labels, personal contact cards, and a checkbook cover that complement one another.

Press Release Body: Check Gallery prides itself on being an environmentally friendly check company by its use of recycled paper for printing. All of the check designs relate to nature and the true magnificence of it; thus, the new “Mod Garden” check design fits right into the existing assortment. It offers a modern and fashionable pattern that still shows an appreciation for our natural surroundings.

Through its website, www.checkgallery.com, Check Gallery released its new "Mod Garden" check design on August 11, 2008. The personal checks, which offer four rotating scenes, portray a very unique looking garden against a pale green background. Featuring pinwheel-like floral designs in teal, red-orange, purple, and blue, the checks also showcase famous quotes from esteemed authors about flowers. The self-adhesive address labels feature the same green background with one modern, artistic flower rotating in the same four colors. The checkbook cover and personal contact cards are both presented with a pale green background and one flower of every color in different shapes on their fronts.

By constantly adding new check designs to the mix, Check Gallery is able to appeal to the likes of all consumers. Additionally, designs like "Mod Garden" make it possible for customers to have fashionable and meaningful artwork on their personal checks and check accessories.
