Press Release Summary: Bedroom Pleasures brings the award winning We Vibe couples sex toy to the UK

Press Release Body: Bedroom Pleasures, one of the largest sex toy and lingerie companies in the UK, has made the revolutionary couple's sex toy, the We Vibe, available in the UK after previously only being available in the US.

The We Vibe Personal Massager is a new, dual purpose vibrator for individual use or with a partner. Totally rechargeable and waterproof, the We Vibe can be used while having sex even upon penetration, offering both partners the added sensation of pulsating vibrations, with The We Vibe is a well designed and discreet clitoral vibrator. The revolutionary and distinctive "C" shape is exclusive to the We-Vibe and it boasts a number of innovative features not currently available anywhere else in the adult novelty market. Unlike traditional and typical dual stimulation toys, the We-Vibe is the only hands-free, strapless, and wireless product that provides powerful stimulation directly to the clitoris and G-Spot as it is worn while making love.

The inner skeleton design of the We Vibe allows it to be flexible helping to ease insertion. The soft surface is made from medical grade silicon ensuring that users won't experience the allergic reactions that can be suffered when using items made from phthalates or latex. The surface is also ridged, designed to give stimulation along and around the clitoris and vaginal wall. Discreet and small, the We Vibe's dual motors provide harmonic pulsations between 3000rpm and 5000rpm.

Over time, the We-Vibe becomes familiar with its owner's body and conforms naturally, while the internal memory material learns to accommodate its individual user.

The new vibrator recently won Top Toy of the Year by the viewers of "Talk Sex with Sue Johanson" in the US and, due to its innovative design and overall versatility, many in the sex toy industry see the potential of the We Vibe replacing a selection of sex toys upon its arrival in the UK.
