Press Release Summary: Alliance Air Freight & Logistics adds location in CA. This will enable commercial/industrial customers as well as eBay users to obtain freight quotes instantly for shipments originating or delivering to San Francisco & the Northern California area. Even more competitive freight rates and freight quotes. Heavyweight shipping services will be available for freight shipments involving the Northern California area. This additional freight facility will also result in the highest level of customer service for all heavyweight shipping services.

Press Release Body: Billy Dubb of Alliance Air Freight, Inc. announced today, that Alliance Air Freight /www.ShipAlli

ance.com will be expanding its operation into an office to be located in South San Francisco CA. This location will house departments for both domestic and international freight logistics services. Alliance Air Freight is both a domestic provider and international provider of shipping, trucking, air freight, ocean freight and freight services for commercial and residential shippers.

Mr. Dubb went on to say, "This facility will be referred to as the heart of 'Alliance Air Freight ," for Northern California. It will be home for the VIP Accounts Department our Marketing Department and National Sales. We also have plans to develop our existing departments and shipping services that will specialize in freight related services which we are not currently serving. These new departments are already under development with plans, marketing, and software programs being developed at this time."

"Our customers include commercial shippers, eBay shippers and private individuals of every type and size. They include individuals who are shipping freight for the first time, web based auction sites, internet based business, large corporations and small companies. We routinely provide fast & easy freight quotes for one time shippers. Through our sales department we can establish freight rates for volume shipping. We also arrange freight quotes and shipping of freight for colleges, city municipalities, state and federal agencies. Annually we provide freight quotes and handle the freight shipping and shipping services for thousands of different shippers. This high freight volume gives us the ability to offer our customers shipping services, freight rates, freight quotes and freight discounts they are continually happy with."
