Press Release Summary: Jana Triplett will be responsible for national business development at Mark Houston Recovery. Jana's arrival is creating buzz.

Press Release Body: Austin, TX -- Mark Houston Recovery, the Texas drug and alcohol recovery center responsible for helping hundreds of men reclaim their lives from addiction, is pleased to announce the addition of a new staff member. Jana Triplett will be responsible for national business development at Mark Houston Recovery.

Jana's arrival is creating a buzz because she brings with her a plethora of experience which includes:

- Director of The Teach Program at Sober Living by the Sea (Newport Beach) where she was featured on a national radio show for being one of the experts on implementing education into treatment.

- Director of the Morningside Academic Institute at Morningside Recovery (Newport Beach) where she developed the program from the ground up, handling business development and admissions.

Jana received a degree in Business Administration and Corporate Communications from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa. Presently, she owns and operates her own women's sober living home, and given her history of success with the work she has done for treatment centers, she is extremely excited about the opportunity to serve the all-male community at Mark Houston Recovery.

Not to be confused with "treatment" centers, recovery centers are slightly different but just as effective. Voluntarily maintained, lifestyle composed and characterized by sobriety, personal health and citizenship- this is what Mark Houston Recovery is all about.

About Mark Houston Recovery: The Mark Houston Recovery Center is a Texas drug and alcohol recovery center that offers a 90-day program for males designed around the principals of the traditional 12 steps to recovery. The team is passionate about its mission to help men free themselves from alcohol and drug addiction and recreate and reclaim their lives.
