Virtue Fusion pioneered the mini game and offers titles including Marine Mayhem, Clover Rollover and Big Top Tombola, which have proven highly popular with players.

"It was important for Virgin Games to select a partner that could give our players the widest choice of game variants, jackpot sizes and price-points," said Simon Burridge, Chief Executive Officer for VirginGames.com.

"Virtue Fusion's network is undoubtedly the market leader in this respect. We are delighted to be joining the Virtue Fusion network and are looking forward to growing our business over the coming years.

"We value Virtue Fusion's flexible network model because we value the right to offer something different. Virtue Fusion's network structure allows us to be just what we want while benefiting from the largest prize pools available online today."

"We are delighted that VirginGames.com has chosen Virtue Fusion's industry-leading software for its bingo offering," said Bob McCulloch, Chief Executive Officer for Virtue Fusion.

"VirginGames.com will benefit through our flexible networked approach to bingo by offering small games that are good for communities while leveraging the power of the network by offering the biggest jackpots available."
