

Tenth Anniversary for The Golfers Club National Classic

Released on: August 24, 2009, 11:51 am

Author: The Golfers Club

Industry: Sports

The Golfers Club is delighted to be hosting their tenth annual members' tournament, The National Classic, at The Marriott Forest of Arden on October 9th 2009.

This is a fitting venue for this wonderful occasion and all members are invited to enter and join The Golfers Club team at this years event. The 7,213 yard Arden course is a suitable test for golfers of all abilities and is set in the most beautiful Warwickshire countryside.

The competition will be played in a stableford format and will include extra special touches such as a taking on an ex European Tour pro at the 202 yard par 3, 18th. Any member that beats the pro on this hole will also receive a special prize.

The National Classic Champion will be crowned at the prize giving dinner. Numbers are strictly limited so please book your place as a soon as possible or call 0800 158 5550 or email: nationalclassic2009@thegolfersclub.co.uk for an application form. Member's can bring guest players to the event if they wish.

The Golfers Club is the largest golf membership scheme in the UK and provides golfers with specialist golf insurance and exclusive member benefits such as golf tuition all for just £49.95. If you are not currently a member join up today then apply for your place by calling 0800 158 5550.

Contact Details:

Emma Chadwick

PR Consultant

Life PR

01612363363

Emma.Chadwick@life-pr.co.uk

~~~~~

Press release distributed via EPR Network (<http://express-press-release.net/submit-press-release.php>)