Cross Atlantic Commodities Inc. (Pink Sheets: CXAC), a manufacturer and distributor of nationally branded commodities, recently confirmed a new look emphasizing the ReJuv anti-aging product line. Along with a renewed website, the company has decided to launch a new media campaign with Creative Bube Tube, a television commercial production company. The new campaign features a 60 second television infomercial. Thanks to the innovative team at the production company, the infomercial has a unique look, maintaining a clean simplicity while still providing customers with important information regarding the anti-aging cream. Specifically the commercial highlights the Immediate Results Cream, which targets fine lines and wrinkles and instantly rejuvenates the skin to a naturally healthy and youthful look.

Nic Taylor, Assistant Producer at Creative Bube Tube, described his excitement of working on this project, "This infomercial came together quite nicely. It has a very clean, modern look to it and thanks to our production crew, the picture quality makes it look like a million dollar work of art. I'm excited to see the reaction it gets after it's hit the networks."

The commercial has begun airing in November and will continue through a 2-week test run. Jorge Bravo, President and CEO of CXAC, remarks, "These are very exciting times for everyone here at CXAC. We are a few short moments from putting Rejuv by Caci(r) on the path that will hopefully make it a household brand. CXAC shareholders have been waiting patiently for revenues and I am confident ReJuv by Caci(r) is the product that will put us in the black.”

Creative Bube Tube continues to produce superior quality commercials, backed by a team of high skilled and creative individuals who take pride in each project they work on. The production agency works not only on commercials and infomercials but also provides numerous services including but not limited to: Research and Project Development, Creative Conceptualization, Storyboards, Location Scouting, Casting and Scripting, Set Design, Studio Production, Professional Lighting & Audio, Professional Wardrobe, Hair and Make-up, Directing and Creative Supervision, Full Service Editing, Special Effects, Graphics and Animation, and a wide variety of Voice Over Talent. The brilliant team has worked with numerous clients worldwide, including Allmax Nutrition, Hauser Furniture, Touchstone Resort, The Canadian Gift Planners Association, Slimband, avVaa World Health Products and Skin Vitality Medical Spas.
