(November 24, 2009) Atlanta, GA – Video Copy Services (VCS), an Atlanta-based CD and DVD duplication company, is pleased to announce their sponsorship of the Bi-Annual Open Mic Shootout at Eddie's Attic in Decatur, Georgia. The next Open Mic Shootout takes place on Friday, November 27th, and will feature 31 singer/songwriters in a head-to-head, tournament-style competition. The winner will receive a $1,000 cash prize from Eddie's Attic, plus CD duplication services for 1,000 CDs provided by VCS. The Open Mic Shootout provides a rare opportunity for up-and-coming talent to showcase their music in front of a sold-out room of music industry professionals and avid music fans. Previous winners who have gone on to national acclaim include John Mayer and Jennifer Nettles (of Sugarland).

"The Eddie's Attic Open Mic Shootout has been an Atlanta tradition for as long as I can remember," says VCS Director of Business Development Trish Thompson, an accomplished musician in her own right. "It is an honor and a privilege for VCS to be able to support this fun and important part of the local music scene."

About

VCS

Founded in October 1984, VCS provides videotape, CD and DVD duplication services to the broadcast industry, film and music industries, religious groups, government agencies and corporate clients. In 1999, they further expanded their range of offerings to include digital video transcoding, video encoding, and a wide array of other high definition video services. Their latest addition, a new Final Cut Pro system, will add increased video editing and storage capabilities to the VCS menu. After 25 years, VCS has grown into a true full-service audio and video duplication company, able to service their growing national client base out of two facilities in their hometown of Atlanta, Georgia.

VCS is a recipient of an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau and is proud to have served as Turner Broadcasting's in-house provider of DVD duplication, DVD replication and video transfer services since 2001. Since 1998 VCS has had the privilege to partner with Dekalb Enterprises by employing moderately handicapped people to perform the majority of the company's video, CD and DVD packaging activities under the supervision of a specially trained supervisor.
