

Baltimore Movie Premiere of "The Lift" at The Charles Theater on December 21st

THE LIFT

A FILM BY BRADY STARR
THELIFTMOVIE.COM

Released on: December 04, 2009, 10:53 am
Author: Alexis Malatino
Industry: Entertainment

BALTIMORE, MD – Studio5 announced tickets are now on sale for the upcoming premiere of the shockumentary, The Lift. The film is an account of two young filmmakers in Baltimore City who attempt to make a documentary about the artists and musicians that share a building, but they stumble upon a rumor that changes their plans entirely. The premiere is Monday, December 21st at 7pm at The Charles Theater located at 1711 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD. Tickets for the premiere are $10.00 and available online at www.TheLiftMovie.com and in person at Cyclops Bookstore at 30 W. North Avenue, Baltimore MD.

Brady Starr, Writer and Director of The Lift, was voted "Best Visual Artist" by the City Paper's 2008 Reader's Poll . The Lift cast includes: Mason Ross, Dylan Lee Brady, Hank Drinkwater, James Wolff, Carabella Sands, and Florentina Duran. The film's Executive Producer is Steven Starr.

A press call will be held before the premiere at The Charles Theater at 6:30pm. A reception will follow the screening at 10pm at The Windup Space, located at 12 W. North Ave., Baltimore, MD.

Media Contact:

Alexis Malatino
410.279.0205
Alexis@HumdingerEnterprise.com

~~~~~

Press release distributed via EPR Network (<http://express-press-release.net/submit-press-release.php>)