"We have the top Christian marketplace thought leaders coming together to offer economic strategies and solutions for today's troubled times," said Cook.

Theme for the event is "Fathering Marketplace Leaders: Prospering in Economic Crisis."

In response, a growing number of business men and women are turning to God, discovering prayer and Biblical principles, choosing faith over fear, and re-examining their assumptions and beliefs about finances, investing, debt, retirement and stewardship in light of current conditions," he stated.
