Is the current president truly the person to bring real change to America or is there another? Is all the animosity against him truly a derivative of racism or can some of it be a response to his performance? Can the recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize truly bring peace to America? Is Mike Huckabee or Sarah Palin the one who is being called to bring divine integrity into the White House?

It is politics as usual as America is being deprived of the bright future that was once promised. The leadership of America is continuously being plagued with scandalous and controversial associations. As the leaders of America continue to point fingers, the real issues are not being addressed or resolved.

Self-proclaimed as Colorado's one and only Christian reggae rapper, 'Prince Trog' announces the release of a new book focusing on the spiritual side of those occupying the White House.

Tyrone Short's It Is Time to Bring Divine Integrity to the White House dares to speak the truth and test those who claim to be Christians.

"(My book) is newsworthy because this is a perspective that has not been explored in regards to understanding the holder of the most powerful position in the world," the author says. "(Readers will gain) biblical discernment regarding the spiritual condition of those who are leading our country."

Written from a Christian perspective, author hopes that his message of truth will rescue readers from bad teaching and false confessions that lead to a false picture of who God is, what the Bible teaches, and what a picture of a true born-again Christian looks like. This book will resonate with readers who are seeking solid foundations--ones based on true Christianity.
