London, December 2009 – Virgin Games have announced the latest addition to their range of bingo slot games with the arrival of Super Hoot Loot. This 5-reel, 40-payline game offers players the chance to win up to 250,000 credits with a single spin.

Winnings can either be redeemed in the form of cash or V-Points, which can be used on a range of Virgin-branded products. Available in multiple-currencies, the game is expected to be a hit not only in the U.K, but also across the world.

Gamers should look out for the special 'Hoo the Owl' symbol, which can appear on any of the game reels to multiple the amount of money won. There is also a free bonus game, which is played with higher hit-frequency reels and can mean winnings multiplied by 10.

This product is the latest in a series of new additions to the site, which include a number of popular entertainment and television franchises, including the new X-Factor bingo game. The site, which is based in Guernsey, was launched in 2004 and received a full re-brand in 2006. Today, it offers a range of bingo, poker and casino products, all of which are offered over a secure 128 bit SSL encryption for complete safety and peace and mind. The group is fully committed to ethical and responsible gaming practices and having fun in the 'unique Virgin way.'

A spokesperson for the company commented:

"The Super Hoot Loot game is not only one of our most fun games ever; it also offers some of the best cash rewards of any online bingo site. This is just the latest in a range of products we have added to the site recently, in our quest to offer users the finest online gaming experience around."
