NewFreeScreensavers.com, featuring a variety of free, colorful screensavers, announces its recent launch. All screensavers and downloads on NewFreeScreensavers.com feature no spyware, adware or viruses, meaning visitors can be assured that the screensavers they download will not harm their computers.

Nowadays, some net searches lead users to Web sites that expose their computers to spam, spyware and other dangerous downloads. According to some research, the most dangerous words to search for are "free screensavers". NewFreeScreensavers.com was created with this in mind, to provide everyone online with a reliable, trusted site from which to view and download screensavers.

NewFreeScreensavers.com features a collection of completely free screensavers that are safe to install and run. The screensavers featured on the site support Windows XP, Windows 7 and Vista. Another distinguishing feature of NewFreeScreensavers.com is the site's simple design, allowing visitors to easily navigate its pages to find the screensaver they are looking for.

NewFreeScreensavers.com features many unique screensaver designs, including a time machine tube that gives viewers the sensation of the flight; a design featuring three cowboys crossing a field at dawn, reminiscent of the Wild West; and an illustrated screensaver that looks as if it jumped off the pages of a fairy-tale book. A range of screensavers with clocks are also available for download.

In addition to a collection of free screensavers, NewFreeScreensavers.com features a tips and tricks section about screen savers, screensaver reviews and a blog.
