One of the UK's largest online sellers of cheap fancy dress outfits, Fancy Dress Shack, has been awarded the accolade of 'Top Rated Seller' on none other than global internet auction site eBay.

This is in recognition of Fancy Dress Shack's exceptional customer service, as rated by their online customers and is a fantastic endorsement of the huge range of cheap fancy dress they stock. Achieving eBay's 'Top Rated Seller' status means three things; that the company or seller receives consistently high buyer ratings and feedback, that they dispatch items quickly and that they have a proven and supported track record of excellent customer service.

"It's great to get recognition from a site such as eBay, which on some days receives over 10 million hits globally", said Keri Williams, Head of Customer Services at Fancy Dress Shack.

We pride ourselves on providing outstanding customer service and that's why we man our phones for 13 hours every day; after all happy customers are the key to ensuring that we get repeat sales of men's and women's fancy dress costumes. Our customers are very loyal and it's great that eBay has recognised why and is now a supporter of the Shack too!"

Fancy Dress Shack sells a range of men's and women's fancy dress and this latest award just goes to prove how popular their sexy fancy dress and men's fancy dress costumes are and the bright future they can look forward to.
