[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek drug abuse treatment from elegant private rehab clinics. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of transparency in the luxury rehabilitation industry.

Now, though, prospective patients have a trusted source on the inside.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best treatment and recovery facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

Given the differences between and among various drug abuse treatment centers, that sort of guidance can often make all the difference in the world.

Honest communication is the bedrock of drug abuse recovery. On the one hand, patients must accurately describe their personal histories to their caregivers. On the other hand, those caregivers must accurately describe their methods and abilities to their clients. In the end, anything but the most frank and earnest dialogue is a recipe for failure.

Unfortunately, those principles aren't always put into practice.

There's plenty of drug abuse treatment information on the Internet. But you can't always believe what you read. In fact, many drug abuse treatment facilities make exaggerated or deceptive claims in their advertising brochures. As should go without saying, these institutions can't be trusted to help patients achieve meaningful and lasting wellness.

Given the stakes in the fight against addiction, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

It's no secret that drug abuse ruins lives. The good news here is that drug abuse treatment can help to solve the problem-but only if it's administered by ethical and empathetic experts. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has proven itself capable of helping clients find the best support in the recovery process. As those clients have discovered, that sort of assistance can make all the difference in the world. "You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention," reads one of the client testimonials published on LuxuryDrugRehab.com's Web site. "All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
