Entertainment agency Music for Scotland will be hosting a live wedding band showcase at the Music Box, Stevenson college, Edinburgh on Wednesday 3rd March, from 7.45pm. Six of the agencies top bands will be performing live including The Strides, Athens, Wildcard, Get The Funk, Four Souls 4 Sale and Franco. Each band will perform for 15 minutes each giving the clients a real opportunity to listen to the bands playing live. Music for Scotland recently invested in filming one of their previous wedding band showcases from January last year so before coming to the live showcase, visitors can browse the website and see all of the bands highlighted in High definition video at www.musicforscotland.co.uk

Richard Lyon from Music for Scotland says "We are really excited about using the Music Box at Edinburgh's Stevenson College again." He went on to say "Having used the Music Box before, we are confident that we have found an ideal venue that is both accessible and comfortable for our customers. From our past experience of hosting wedding band showcases feedback has always been very positive as it gives prospective clients the chance to see a variety of bands all under one roof".

The Music for Scotland team will be on hand to answer any questions and a deal with booking enquiries. To secure any of the bands from the showcase a £50 booking fee will be required and can be paid by cash or cheque. Details on how to get to the venue can be found on the Stevenson College website.
