The buildings that Joseph Estephan has created tin videos tells that big cities are great to visit. They are on the web site: <http://www.joestephan.com>, which displays videos large skyscrapers. Joseph Estephan Buildings can be seen on a New York City or Chicago visit. The hectic part of this video is clouds on summer skies. The videos make you think that you are actually in the city as the music soars with the flying birds. Joseph Estephan creation of classical music give the fluffy clouds that texture of cotton ready for weaving. The sky has a blue vastness in the video and there is no smog or pollution to be found Some programs to take while in the buildings are on Joseph Estephan site <http://www.vintagefootballprograms.com>
